

European Youth Event - Strasbourg | 9-11 May 2014

"EYE 2014: Finding answers to Youth Unemployment", organized by the European Parliament.

About the EYE

What is it?

The European Parliament will open its doors to thousands of young people from all over the EU and invite them to meet with European decision-makers and speakers with a wide range of professional experience to exchange ideas and perspectives on youth-related issues, develop new, innovative ways and solutions to crucial questions for the future and experience the rich cultural diversity within the European Union through the staging of various cultural performances.

When and Where?

From Friday morning to Sunday noon. Strasbourg, France, inside and outside the European Parliament.

How?

The EYE 2014 will include a large variety of activities run under the motto "Ideas for a better Europe". Altogether, the three-day event will offer political debates and workshops, role-play games, a youth village and a festival organised by the European Youth Forum, a concert and a street festival

Topics

The event will be centered around five thematic areas:

- Youth Unemployment. New perspectives for a blocked generation
- Digital Revolution. The future of the internet
- Future of the European Union. Europe in transition
- Sustainability. New European Lifestyle - Sustainable business and living
- European Values. Global Player - Fair Player?

More information on the programme is available HERE and on the general event HERE.

How will we work?

JEF Europe will be represented with a group of 20 participants from Member States of the EU. We will only be able to accept 2 persons from non-EU Member States. JEF Europe will be holding different activities in which our group will have to take part in and represent the organization. A JEF stand will be managed by our group; and our participants will have the opportunity to run workshops, debates and attend events organized by other associations.
